In 1999 and 2000 the Ontario Governments Ministry of Education OME fostered the creation of a set of ten Native Studies courses for grades 9 through 12. The non-compulsory, segregated Native Studies curriculum, a revision of the People of. Native ii use of native languages in instruction, and iii use of traditional.