Principles of American Government and the Constitution Flashcards. popular sovereignty: the political principle that people are the source of all governmental power and that government requires the consent of the governed.
